The Croatian Science Foundation (HRZZ) is pleased to invite you to a special kick-off workshop, celebrating Croatia's entry into the Driving Urban Transitions (DUT) Partnership. This event aims to engage national stakeholders, as Croatia becomes a part of this important European initiative.

Orsolya Küttel, member of the DUT Partnership Coordination Team, will present the mission, strategic goals, and current activities of the partnership. Additionally, Elena Simion, managing the DUT Call Secretariat, will share insights into the upcoming opportunities for collaboration.

This workshop offers a valuable platform to discuss how Croatian cities, academia, and other stakeholders can work together on urban transitions, and explore opportunities for future cooperation within the DUT Partnership.
